NO. 43

HON. BEN JOHNSON, SENATOR OLIVER

Delivered Speeches Here
Last Monday.

A LARGE CROWD WAS PRESENT

Mostly Democrats—Johnson
Replies to Oliver in a Telling Way.

A VERY INTERESTING COMBAT

Monday was speaking day in Hartford at which time Congressman Ben Johnson (Democrat) and Senator A. J. Oliver (Taft Republican), were billed to address the voters of Ohio county. Both spoke in the afternoon beginning at 1 o'clock. On account of being first to make the appointment, Senator Oliver spoke first. The court room was hardly half full when the first speaker began, but when Congressman Johnson took the floor the house was crowded and many were standing in the aisles.

Senator Oliver was introduced by Mr. Otto C. Martin in a brief way. Almost the whole of the Senator's speech was devoted to a defense of the old Republican principle of a high protective tariff. He accused the Democrats of being in favor of free trade, when everybody who reads the daily press knows that Gov. Wilson has thoroughly repudiated that idea, neither does the Democratic platform contend for any such thing. He inveighed against the Wilson-Gorman bill of the Cleveland administration and read part of a Republican campaign leaflet to support his argument. He also quoted from that ancient book, Coln's Financial School.

Senator Oliver did not explain why the Republicans promised to revise the tariff downward and then failed to do so. If the tariff is all right, why this promise? He said there was no spot on Republican administration since 1896, but evidently forgot the panic of 1907. He predicted all kinds of calamity if the Democrats should win, but did not say what would happen if Roosevelt should be elected. The Senator told several old anecdotes to illustrate certain points of his speech, two of which were gotten off here last year by Mr. Ed Morrow.

The Bull Moosers were left to the very last for the speaker to tackle, and then he handled them with maudlin tenderness and affection. In tearful tones he pleaded for the Bull Moosers to "come back home." He said a vote for Roosevelt was simply thrown away—in other words, it was a vote for Wilson. Said Taft is the man the Democrats fear, which is directly contrary to what the local Moose organ has been contending. He advised the negroes to attack to the "Abe Linkum" party—the source from which they obtained their freedom. There were several Moosers present, but they sat in grin and stone-faced silence, and gave no evidence of either enjoying or rejecting the speaker's remarks. All in all, his speech was very tame and mediocre. He spoke for an hour and a half and then gave way to Congressman Ben Johnson.

Mr. Johnson was introduced by Campaign Chairman C. M. Crowe, who very aptly remarked that Congressman Johnson really needed no introduction to an Ohio county audience, as almost everybody knows and admires him. What Mr. Johnson did for Mr. Oliver's high protection argument was a plenty. And he did it in such a nice and gentlemanly way, supported by well known quoted facts from statistics and otherwise, that nobody could doubt his contention. The first part of Mr. Johnson's speech was devoted to what he called "giving an account of his stewardship." In other words, his work in Congress. He told of his accomplishments as a member of the Committee on District of Columbia, in which body he worked himself from the bottom, where Uncle Joe Cannon placed him, to the top as chairman. He said his investigations showed that $154,000 a year is paid by Kentuckians to support the city of Washington. He told of the vast sums of money he had saved the taxpayers by his diligent work as a member of the Committee.

Mr. Johnson proved the utter fallacy of the most of Mr. Oliver's argument along high protection lines; showed how the consumer pays the tariff tax in every instance. As an illustration he took the internal revenue tax on whiskey. Everybody knows that the internal revenue tax on whiskey is $1.10 a gallon. Everybody also knows that this $1.10 is added onto the cost of every gallon of whiskey sold to the retailer, who sells the stuff, either by the gallon, pint or drink, in proportion to what it cost him. So at last the consumer pays the tax. If it were not for this tax, whiskey would sell as it used to—anywhere from 15c to 40c a gallon. (Mr. Johnson added by way of parenthesis that he wished this tax was $5 a gallon, so strongly he is opposed to the liquor traffic.)

It is the same way said the speaker, with the tariff tax on all family supplies—the consumer at last pays the tax. The tariff protects nobody but the manufacturer. The great heads of the big trusts fix the prices on the different commodities used in every household. That is the reason the farmer must sell his supplies at "the market price," which governs the sale of hogs and cattle. There being as yet no horse or mule trust, the buyer and seller can fix the price. But almost everything else—notably the dry goods trade—is arbitrarily governed by the prices fixed by the trust controlling game.

Speaking of the Bull Moosers, Mr. Johnson said the Roosevelt platform contained all the bad taken from previous Republican documents of like kind, and the good from Democratic platforms. Mr. Taft is simply standing "pat" on the rotten record of his party. He would rather see the fortunes of the rich augmented by his vetoes of worthy Democratic bills than the poor prosper by Democratic legislation. The principles of Democracy, said Mr. Johnson, will never die, whether they win out at the polls this fall or not.

Mr. Johnson's speech was highly complimented on all sides, many Republicans and Moosers giving it their meed of praise. It dealt in facts from the records, substantiated by the personal experience of Mr. Johnson in Congress, and not alleged funny anecdotes to support exploded fallacies. Mr. Johnson was heartily congratulated at the close of his speech. He addressed the voters at Fordsville yesterday.

BRAVE CRIPPLE GIVES HIS LIFE FOR ANOTHER

Gary, Ind., Oct. 19.—"I guess I'm some good, after all." Billy Rugh, the forty-one-year-old cripple whose withered leg was amputated to save the life of a girl in a skin-grafting operation in a hospital, spoke these words this morning and then died. Pneumonia was said by the physicians to have been the cause of death.

The ailment, however, resulted directly from his self-sacrifice, having been due to irritation of the lungs by the ether that was given him when his leg was cut off to furnish skin for the body of a person whom he had never seen.

Rugh had no relatives and since coming to Gary a tramp several years ago, had made his living selling newspapers on the streets. He had to be trusted for the first bundle of papers with which he started business.

The girl, Miss Ethel Smith, for whom he sacrificed his leg and later his life, had been horribly burned in a motorcycle accident. It is just two days since her recovery sufficiently to permit her removal from the hospital in which Rugh died.

NOVEMBER 2 ESPECIAL DAY

Set Aside for the Cause of Democracy.

DEMOCRATS ALL OVER NATION

To Hold Meetings of Consultation and Counsel
On that Day.

A MESSAGE FROM GOV. WILSON

A special message from Woodrow Wilson will be read at meetings of Democrats at county seats throughout the State November 2. Not only will rallies be held in each of the county seats on that date, but throughout the country as well, the National Committee, as in the case of the conference of Democratic editors of Kentucky, again acting upon the suggestion of J. N. Camden, chairman of the Democratic Campaign Committee of Kentucky. A telegram dealing with plans for the final rally of the campaign throughout the country was received by Mr. Camden from W. G. McAdoo, vice chairman of the Democratic National Committee, Friday. It follows:

"Referring to my previous telegram about Wilson Day, the Democratic National Committee has decided to designate November 2 instead of October 31 as Wilson and Marshall Day, and to request the Democratic organization in each State of the Union to hold as many meetings as possible in each State on the afternoon and evening of that day at which an original and special message from our great leader, Gov. Woodrow Wilson, will be read.

"All arrangements within your State are left entirely in the hands of State Committees, National committeemen are requested to co-operate with the State chairman. Whatever regular meetings you are arranging for the afternoon and night of November 2 should proceed just the same and Gov. Wilson's message can be read at such meetings, but the committee suggests that you have the Democrats assemble on same day at as many other places within your State as possible, even if they come together informally for the purpose of receiving this special message from Gov. Wilson.

"It will be an inspiring thing to assemble or mobilize as far as possible the hosts of Democrats on November 2 to hear Gov. Wilson's message and to concert measures for bringing out on election day the largest possible Democratic vote. The response we have received throughout the country has been most favorable. We believe that Wilson and Marshall Day can be made a great and inspiring feature of this campaign. Gov. Wilson's message will be sent to you in ample time to have you forward it to every meeting which may be arranged in your State. Please do all that you can to give this the widest publicity and to make Wilson and Marshall Day a great success. While the National Committee can do little more than offer suggestions, you may be sure of our hearty co-operation."

REASONS FOR DELAY IN CONFEDERATE PENSIONS

Capt. W. J. Stone, of Lyon county, pension agent under the Confederate pension act passed by the last General Assembly, states that it will be some time before the 3,300 applications for pensions filed with the department are all passed upon.

Quite a number of the applications do not come within the law. Of the number investigated, fifty-five per cent. come within the law, twenty per cent. according to the proof presented are disqualified and the other twenty-five per cent. have not sufficient proof to justify the applicants receiving pensions.

Capt. Stone stated that quite a few of the county judges have been careless in sending in pension proofs, as a number of the applications do not state whether the applicants are poor, or whether they were honorably discharged.

MEETING OF KENTUCKY

MEDICAL ASSOCIATION

The fifty-seventh annual session of the Kentucky State Medical Association will convene in Dr. Powell's First Christian Church, in Louisville, October 29, 30 and 31st.

Special rates on the railroads will be given. Especial attention will be paid to Pellagra and Infantile

Paralysis.

Especial arrangement has been made for the entertainment of the visiting members and the ladies who accompany them.

This will be the largest medical meeting that has ever been held in Kentucky, and owing to the great interest displayed by the profession of Louisville in arranging for the reception and entertainment of the visitors, the response by the doctors of the State will be hearty. It is expected that more than half of the practicing physicians in Kentucky will be present.

firmities due to old age.

THE NEW REIGN OF GOOD FEELING

Inaugurated During the Present Campaign.

WILSON NOT THE CANDIDATE

Of a Party, But of a People
—Within Sight of Peace
And Prosperity.

BRINGING BACK OLD TIMES

The West has taken Woodrow Wilson to its heart. The scenes that have accompanied his recent progress—in Denver, in Kansas City, in St. Louis, in Chicago—have hardly a parallel in American history. He has seemed not to be the candidate of a party, but of a people.

In these great cities Mr. Wilson has been received in a spirit of holiday rejoicing—as if the electoral debate has been closed. The throngs—unprecedented in multitude—have not cared for speechmaking, because they have not needed to be convinced.

Such signs of gathering social concord suggest that the country is standing on the threshold of a "new era of good feeling."

There has been more than enough of rancor and bitterness in the convulsion that has shattered the Republican party. But the temper of the nation has recoiled from all that. The Democratic standard-bearer has gone abroad through the land, without a word of malice on his tongue—preaching a gospel of political repentance and recovery, of reconciliation and construction, of contagious good humor and good cheer.

Woodrow Wilson is bringing the nation within sight of a fair land of peace and prosperity. With the passing of election day we may expect to enter upon a new and spacious time—a time in which we shall be free from this generation has ever been from the wastes and losses of party strife, and class struggle, and shall have room and breadth to build the cities and subdue the earth.

The delicious period that is known in history as the "era of good feeling" was ushered in by the election of James Monroe to the Presidency in 1816. It was preceded by the break-up of the Federalist party—even as the Republican party has now broken up. Monroe had 183 votes in the Electoral College, while his Federalist opponent, Rufus King, had only 34. Four years later Monroe was chosen again by national acclamation in an Electoral College that lacked only one vote of unanimity. The eight years of his administration were all years of healing and mending—party lines were utterly effaced. The people united in vast works of internal improvement, in the State-making migrations to the new West, and in the laying of the foundations of that stupendous structure of industry and commerce which was the world-wonder of the nineteenth century.

We have come to the beginning of such another time. Not since the days of James Monroe has any man approached a Presidential election with such omens of universal approval as those that now attend the steps of Woodrow Wilson.—[New York American.]

GOV. WILSON IS TO QUIT STUMP

Until Col. Roosevelt Recovers from Wound.

WILL FILL HIS STATED DATES

Has No Desire to be Single and Only Candidate on the Stump.

DISTRESSED AT AWFUL DEED

Princeton, N. J., Oct. 16.—Governor Woodrow Wilson late to-night announced that he would cancel all speaking engagements, with the exception of those arranged for Thursday and Friday of this week, until Colonel Roosevelt is able to take an active part in the campaign.

The Governor will speak in Delaware, West Virginia and Pennsylvania this week, concluding his campaign in Pittsburgh Friday night.

"I cannot cancel the engagements which are immediately ahead of me," said Governor Wilson, "without submitting those who have arranged them to a very serious embarrassment and great unnecessary expense, but I shall cut out the series at the earliest possible point."

"Mr. Taft has at no time taken an active part in the campaign, and I have no desire to be the single candidate on the stump against no active antagonist."

Governor Wilson was asked if his active speechmaking would end on his return next Saturday from Delaware, West Virginia and Pennsylvania.

"Yes," he said, "I have asked my managers to arrange to cancel the engagements in New York and Brooklyn for next Saturday night."

Before issuing this statement, Governor Wilson talked over the long distance telephone to Democratic headquarters in New York, and his secretary, Joseph P. Tumulty.

The Governor was deeply solicitous for news of Colonel Roosevelt and asked the correspondents to keep him informed as to the bulletins from the hospital at the Colonel's home here.

Due to the time in connection with his recovery, he received Colonel Roosevelt's letter at 11 p. m.

Due to start on his trip to Delaware, West Virginia and Pennsylvania last night. When asked by the correspondents to-night if he would take extra precautions when appearing in public hereafter, he said he would not.

"There is nothing that can be done," he declined, "to guard against such attacks. It seems to me that police and secret service guards are useless if a madman determines to attack a man in public life."

DYING, PROVIDES CASH FOR 50-YEAR-OLD DEBT

Los Angeles, Oct. 18.—Robert George, a wealthy property owner of East Whittier, fifteen miles from Los Angeles, has received a check for $28,577, his share of the $200 left to the estate of his father, Col. Jack George, by Ben Kalb, an Iowa farmer.

The money is in payment for a mule borrowed by Kalb from Col. George when he was a Virginia farmer more than fifty years ago. Later he refused to return the mule or to pay for it, and the incident was almost forgotten. On his deathbed in Iowa a short time ago Kalb made his daughter promise to send the $200 to the heirs of Col. George that he might have a clear conscience the last moments of his life.

NEW POLICY FOR PRISONS SOON TO BE WORKED OUT

The Board of Prison Commissioners has adopted a resolution designating the Eddyville branch prison as a penitentiary and the Frankfort prison as the Kentucky State Reformatory. The policy of the board will be to send to Eddyville all convicts more than 30 years old and habitual criminals or those convicted of atrocious crime. First offenders and convicts under 30 years old who do not come within the classes of old offenders or degenerate criminals will be sent to Frankfort.

On account of existing contracts, which require a certain number of men in the prison shops, it will be impossible to make transfers of the men now incarcerated in the two prisons, but the Circuit Judges will be informed of the board's action so that hereafter in sentencing prisoners they may commit them to Eddyville or Frankfort in accordance with the policy of the board. Eventually this will result in making the distinction between the two institutions practical.

JUST WHAT HAPPENED AFTER LONG THOUGHT

Every young person, with scarcely an exception, from a very early age, looks forward to the time when the choice will be made of a companion for life. Young people expect to fall in love just as anxious mothers look for their children to have the measles or whooping cough. Wise men tell us it is necessary to be slow in making a choice of a life companion, since it is impossible to discover a person's good qualities at first sight. After a long deliberation, Mr. Albert P. Jones and Miss Mary B. Smith were united in marriage by the pastor of the Presbyterian Church on Wednesday evening, October 2, at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh L. Smith.—[Concordia Kansan.]

REPUBLICAN CHAMPION IS AGAIN TO THE FRONT

In Defense of Party Principles—Not Afraid to Sign His Name.

Roscoe, Ky., Oct. 16, 1912.

Editors Hartford Herald, Dear Sirs:—I notice there seems to be some little friction between myself and some of my once Republican neighbors and friends in our county, and I notice in an editorial in the Hartford Republican, an item notifying men that lived in glass houses to be careful what they say about others, virtually acknowledging themselves to be guilty.

Now, if they were throwing this at myself I will do them a favor by setting them aright on this one thing. Will any for the benefit of the Cow Noosers, I acknowledge I haven't been politically what I ought to have been, and I may have done many things not becoming a gentleman, yet no one can truthfully say I have bolted my party's nominees. I will assure my accusers that at the time they have reference to, I never voted in our primary election. I considered myself too manly to vote in a primary or convention. And because I failed getting my choice, I did not bolt and follow a traitor and try to tear up the party. That has always been my way. I never denounced my friends of the past who stood to me and who were known by their works and called them bad names by saying they were wilfully and knowingly following a thief.—W. H. Taft.

Well, that may contain as little truth as most every other assertion the Noosers are making in the present campaign. But will say I have been and am yet striving with the party of my choice and I feel no condemnation resting on me because I am standing for the regular National Republican Convention. One consolation I have—wise men often change, and this is adding to Taft's strength thousands daily, and I do not brand them as Democrats, for the wise men of this party are standing to the regular nominee.

The Republican party has been in power so long and has accumulated so many pie-hunters that the party cannot feed them all with a silver spoon, so the ones out are likely to stay out, and want to start a new party. So they put the halter on the Bull Moose and lead him around for the voters to rally around and acknowledge him their leader.

The Cow Noosers in their wild predictions just after the T. R. convention in Ohio county, said the Republicans could not poll over 3 votes to the voting precinct in Ohio county. Let them get wise after the returns are all in and find where all the mighty host of Republicans came from—and they can be branded as Republicans in 1913. Say, do you Bull Noosers catch on? So wishing all may be prosperous financially but not politically, and not ashamed to sign my name, I am L. P. CROWDER.

Here is a woman who speaks from personal knowledge and long experience, viz., Mrs. P. H. Brogan, of Wilson, Pa., who says, "I know from experience that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is far superior to any other. For croup there is nothing that excels it." For sale by all dealers.

FOLEY KIDNEY PILLS FOR BACKACHE, KIDNEYS AND BLAODS.

DIDN'T WANT TO KILL ROOSEVELT

Says Would-be Assassin of Colonel.

A FORMAL HEARING IN COURT

Discloses a Very Ordinary Man Who Attempted Fiendish Murder.

HE ONCE HAD A SWEETHEART

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 16.—John Schrank, who attempted to kill Col. Roosevelt last night, looked little the worse for a night spent in a cell at the Central station reposing on a plank for a bed.

Schrank called for a cup of coffee and something to eat shortly after 7 o'clock. He was given a sandwich, which he ate, though he said his appetite was not very keen.

"How do you feel this morning, Schrank?" was asked the prisoner as he sat in his cell.

"Oh, pretty well, considering everything," he answered. "I'm not used to sleeping on a bed quite so soft as this one," he added, pointing to the wide board on which he was sitting.

The assassin still sticks to his story told last night that the shooting was the result of a vision which came to him some time ago. Asked as to whether it was his desire to kill the former President, Schrank said it was not.

Schrank is a single man and claims he had but one sweetheart. She was Emily Zeigler, who, he said, lost her life in the disaster which befell the steamer General Slocum in New York a number of years ago.

Schrank appeared unperturbed over the consequences awaiting him. He talked rationally. Asked as to his politics, he said he usually voted the Democratic ticket, but that sometimes he voted as a Republican.

Schrank was taken to District Court at 10:30 o'clock this morning for preliminary examination. The action was taken on recommendation of District Attorney Zabel, who issued a warrant, charging Schrank with shooting Col. Roosevelt with attempt to kill.

Schrank's arraignment caused little excitement in City Hall, where Judge Neelen's room is located. Early in the day it had been announced that Schrank would not be taken to court before to-morrow. As a result his appearance in charge of a half dozen city detectives was little noted.

Then Schrank, between two detectives, who towered a foot above his head, was brought to one side of Judge Neelen's bench. District Attorney Zabel read the formal charge of attempted murder, based on a warrant which he had caused to be issued this morning.

"Do you understand the charge which the District Attorney has just read here?" said Judge Neelen to Schrank.

"Yes," replied Schrank, as he gazed quietly at the Judge.

"Have you an attorney?" said the Judge.

"No, I have not," replied Schrank.

At this point the District Attorney interrupted with:

"Do you want this case tried in a hurry, Schrank?"

"Yes, sir," said Schrank.

"All right," remarked Judge Neelen, "I think this disposes of the matter so far as we can go this morning. I will fix bail at $7,500, the maximum under the charge upon which the prisoner has been arraigned."

As soon as Schrank was taken from the court room Judge Neelen called District Attorney Zabel and Peter Paulus, City Jailor, to the bar.

"Who has the revolver and the remaining cartridges?" asked the Judge.

"I have," replied Paulus.

"Well, I desire to have a chemical examination made of the remaining bullets to determine if they are poisoned," said Judge Neelen. "I therefore order you personally to take the revolver and the bullets to Prof. E. W. Somer for a chemical test."

The court room in which the proceedings took place was less than two-thirds filled with spectators. Scarcely more than twenty people on the front benches realized the import of what was taking place. There was no sign of disorder.

After Schrank had been taken from the anteroom and down the elevator from the seventh floor, a buzz of conversation filled the court room for a few moments as spectators told each other the identity of the light-haired, smooth-faced young man.

Official Statement of Colonel's Wounds.

Chicago, Oct. 16.—The following official statement was issued by the surgeons attending Col. Roosevelt:

"Col. Roosevelt's hurt is a deep bullet wound of the chest wall without striking any vital organ in transit. The wound was not probed. The point of entrance was to the right of and one inch below the level of the right nipple. The range of the bullet was upward and inward, a distance of four inches deep on the chest wall. There was no evidence of the bullet penetrating the lung. Pulse, 90; temperature, 99.2; respiration, 20; leucocyte count, 82 at 10 a. m. No operation to remove the bullet is indicated at the present time. Condition hopeful, but wound so important as to demand absolute rest for a number of days."

A CERTAIN COLD DEAL IS TO BE HANDED OUT

To Folks North of Mason and Dixon Line 15,000 Years Hence.

Joliet, Ill., Oct. 18.—In 16,912, 10,000 years from to-day, people living north of the Mason and Dixon line will be Eskimos.

At least this is the belief expressed by Dr. Frederick A. Cook, explorer and scientist, in an interview here to-day.

"Yes, sir, 15,000 years from now they'll be wearing furs and eating blubber instead of hon-bons in this part of the country," said Dr. Cook.

"Instead of traveling to his lady love's igloo in a 16,912 touring car or aeroplane, the gay lothario of that day will drive to her ice-packed domicile in a sled drawn by dogs and will spend the evening of the two long months' duration before her fire of blubber oil, talking of placing an ivory ring on her finger when the sealskin and walrus hide harvest is over," said the doctor.

This change in climatic and domestic conditions will be due, Dr. Cook avers, to a variance in the ellipses of the earth around the sun, shooting this planet out of its present orbit and away from the source of heat, changing the entire solar system and transforming this into a glacial snow, such as exists around the north pole.

This discovery was made by Dr. Cook while in the polar region, he states. Every 30,000 years the territory between the Mason and Dixon line and northernmost Canada is covered with a sheet of ice and the temperature drops to 30 degrees below zero, where it remains for 1,000 years. We are now between two such glacial periods, Dr. Cook declares.

If you have young children you have perhaps noticed that disorders of the stomach are their most common ailment. To correct this you will find Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets excellent. They are easy and pleasant to take, and mild and gentle in effect. For sale by all dealers.

Boy Dragged To Death.

Smith's Grove, Ky., Oct. 17.—Clarence Majors, a sixteen-year-old boy, working for J. W. Jones, was thrown from a mule at a farm here and killed. Majors was riding the mule to the field when it became frightened and threw him. His foot became entangled in the trace chain and he was dragged across a thirty-acre field, his neck being broken. He was dead when assistance reached him. The funeral was held to-day at Martinsville, near the home of his parents.

J. W. Copeland, of Dayton, Ohio, purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for his boy who had a cold, and before the bottle was all used, the boy's cold was gone. Is that not better than to pay a five-dollar doctor's bill? For sale by all dealers.

PRESIDENT IS HORRIFIED AT DASTARDLY ATTEMPT

On Col. Roosevelt's Life and Expressed Regret at Terrible Deed.

New York, Oct. 15.—President Taft issued a long statement on board the Mayflower this afternoon relative to the shooting of Col. Roosevelt.

"I cannot withhold an expression of horror," he said, "at the act of the maniac who attempted to assassinate Col. Roosevelt."

"When I briefly expressed my regret last night," the President's statement continued, "I had been informed that Col. Roosevelt was then speaking and had escaped injury. The news, however, is of a more serious character. I feel the deepest sympathy for Mr. Roosevelt and his family, and I pray that the wound may prove to be only a flesh wound and that as the surgeons predict, there may be no complications."

"This assault, following the shooting of Mayor Gaynor two years ago and the assassination of three out of the last nine of the Presidents elected by our people, are events which must cause solemn reflection by all Americans upon conditions which make it possible that such dastardly deeds may occur in a country affording to its citizens such complete advantages of civil liberty."

"It is of course difficult entirely to avoid the malignant purpose of the cunningly insane. The severe enforcement of the laws against the carrying of concealed weapons and the more rigorous and certain prosecution of all such attempted crimes, whether against prominent or less conspicuous persons, are of course helpful, but the condemnation of all good citizens of such acts and their co-operation in preventing the spread of vicious doctrines which would excuse or palliate an attempt to remedy fancied wrongs to resort to violence, will be more effective.

"I speak for the American people in expressing the profound hope that Col. Roosevelt may speedily recover from the effects of this dastardly act."

The only rational thing in a love letter is the postage stamp on the outside.

HIS TRIAL SET FOR NOVEMBER

Says Col. Roosevelt's Slayer is Not Insane.

SOCIALIST STATE'S ATTORNEY

Is Taking the Matter in Hand and Will Guarantee a Fair Trial.

SCHRANK IS ALONE IN CHARGE

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 17.—State's Attorney Winfred C. Zabel, of Milwaukee county, tonight definitely announced that John Schrank, Col. Roosevelt's assailant, would not be brought to trial until after the national election, November 5. He said the trial would be opened some time between November 11 and 15. Mr. Zabel, who is said to be the only Socialist State's Attorney in the country, gave three specific reasons for his decision to put off the trial for one month.

He said, first, that it was only reasonable to await the results of Col. Roosevelt's injury; second, he had no desire to crowd the defendant, and third, gave it as his opinion that it would be unwise to call the case during the final struggle in the Presidential campaign.

"It is my desire to try this case justly and expeditiously," said Mr. Zabel, "and this will be done, but we wish to avoid having the plain criminal aspects of the case in any way involved in the national political situation. It would not be fair to any of the persons involved to do so. If we went to trial before election day, it is almost certain that the matter would be dragged into the campaign by one or another of the big political parties."

Discussing the case as viewed by him, the Milwaukee county Prosecutor said that as far as surface indications, Schrank was sane.

"If Schrank is insane," said Mr. Zabel, "it seems that there is method in his madness when he selects for the scene of his crime a State where there is no capital punishment."

"Also, I am informed in messages from New York, there has been no insanity in Schrank's family as far as can be traced. In addition the man presents none of the usual surface indications of insanity."

The State's Attorney said he believed Schrank had no accomplices or advisors in the crime and that the shooting of Col. Roosevelt undoubtedly was the outgrowth of individual plans.

When the case is called, it will be heard by Judge August C. Backus, of the Municipal Court, unless Schrank asks a change of venue. The Public Prosecutor said that after election he would consult with Judge Backus and that they would call the case to trial formally, at their discretion.

The plea of guilty filed by Schrank at his preliminary hearing before Judge N. B. Neelen in the District Court this morning, is looked upon as merely perfunctory by the Public Prosecutor's office.

"I shall permit Schrank to withdraw that plea of guilty when he goes to trial if he so desires," said Mr. Zabel. "In other words this case will be tried in exactly the same manner as any other case of like criminal gravity. But there will be no persecution of the defendant. He will be tried justly and fairly and can expect to receive the punishment merited by the crime."

Mrs. Peter Holan, 11501 Buckeye Rd., Cleveland, O., says: "Yes, I can recommend Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. My little boy had a bad case of whooping cough, sometimes he was blue in the face. I gave him Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, and it had a remarkable effect and cured him in a short time." Remember the name, Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, and do not accept any substitute. Children like it, grown folks are quickly helped by it, and it contains no opiates. For sale at all dealers.

SCHOOL TEACHER FEARS A PRENATAL INFLUENCE

Ralph Knobloch, 8 years old and paralyzed in his lower limbs since birth, has been barred from attendance at the Kinloch Public School by Principal G. C. McMillan because of a fear that the boy's affliction would have a prenatal influence on the little girls in the class and cause like constrictions to be born to the little girls in later years.

This year was the boy's first at school. He had attended only a month when McMillan had apprehensions and notified H. R. Knobloch, the boy's father, that Ralph no longer would be allowed to attend the Kinloch School. Knobloch and his wife appealed to McMillan several times to have their son reinstated. Knobloch even volunteered to rise before his usual time in the morning and take his son to the school in a wagon and call for him in the evening. McMillan refused.

The Knoblochs took the matter before W. R. Bender, St. Louis County Superintendent of Schools, and Bender promised to help him. McMillan steadily refused and gave Bender his reasons. Knobloch again went to see Superintendent Bender and pleaded to let the boy return to school, saying it was his boy's only chance for an education. Bender took Knobloch to the law office of Nolte & Kiskaddon, at Clayton, and they prepared mandamus proceedings, which will be filed in the Clayton Circuit Court. [St. Louis Cor. Baltimore Sun.]

HAS SHOWN BATHER GOOD WORK FOR AN AMATEUR

Isn't it about time to have done with that particular kind of criticism of Woodrow Wilson which is expressed by calling him an amateur politician?

In New Jersey, as everyone knows, he has made monkeys of the professionals. He has put through a mass of legislation against their wishes, and he has overwhelmed them at the polls.

In the national campaign he has succeeded in unifying the Democracy as it has not been united since 1892. Gold Democrats, Silver Democrats, Eastern, Western, Northern and Southern Democrats—they are all united behind him. Could the most astute professional politician do better?

In this campaign, with so abnormally shrewd an opponent as Roosevelt against him, he has so conducted himself that one of the most restrained newspapers of the country has truthfully said of him:

"Not a flaw has been found in his record by his opponents, and his fair and reasonable attitude toward all the great problems of the day makes thousands of converts to his cause daily. Not since the days of Lincoln has there appeared in public life a man who showed such a firm intellectual grasp of the difficult situation confronting him. No longer do we hear sneers about 'the schoolmaster.' Governor Wilson has proved himself distinctly a statesman and man of affairs, and the confidence felt in him and his prospective election is indicated by the business activity and prosperity reported from all sides."

If the man who can do these things is an amateur, then it is time for the professionals to sit at his schoolmasterly feet and learn a few lessons. [Baltimore Sun.]

There are two programmes. The Democratic programme is this—to see to it that competition is so regulated that the big fellow cannot put the little fellow out of business, for he has been putting the little fellow out of business for the last half generation. The programme of the third party is to take these big fellows that have been putting the little fellow out of business, and regulate them, saying, "that is right, you have put the other fellows out of business, but we are not going to put the little fellows back where you destroyed them, but we are going to adopt you and say, 'You run the business of the country, but run it the way we tell you to run it.'"

The only thing you have to choose between, therefore, is this: Are you going to have fresh brains injected into the business of this country, and the best men win, or are you going to make the present combinations permanent?

SHORT SKETCH OF THE THIRD PARTY

And Who Constitutes It, By Gov. Wilson.

MADE UP OF THREE ELEMENTS

Which Are Aptly Described—Only Thing Remaining to Choose Between.

KINDLY STATEMENT OF CASE

(By Woodrow Wilson.)

There is a new party which it is difficult to characterize because it is made up of several elements. As I see it, it is made up of three elements in particular. The first consists of those Republicans whose consciences and whose stomachs could not stand what the regular Republicans were doing. Added to this element are a great many men and women of noble character and of elevated purpose who believe that this combination of forces may in the future bring them out on a plane where they can accomplish those things which their hearts have so long desired. I have no word of criticism for them. Then, there is a third element in the new party of which the less said the better. To discuss it would be interesting only if I could mention names and I have forbidden myself that indulgence. We have in this party two things, a political party and a body of social reformers.

Mr. Roosevelt puts forth an admirable platform of what he would like to do for the people; but how is he going to do it? He proposes in his platform not to abolish monopoly, but to take it under the legal protection of the Government and to regulate it; in other words, to take the very men into partnership who have been making it impossible to carry out these great programmes by which all of us wish to help the people. It is perfectly idle to talk of doing things when your hands are tied for you so long as the men who now control the industry of the country continue to control it. Now, we don't want to disturb the industry of the country. We are not here to destroy the industry which these men have built up. But we are here to destroy the control over the industry of other people which these men have established, and which makes it impossible that we should give ourselves a free field of service.

There are two programmes. The Democratic programme is this—to see to it that competition is so regulated that the big fellow cannot put the little fellow out of business, for he has been putting the little fellow out of business for the last half generation. The programme of the third party is to take these big fellows that have been putting the little fellow out of business, and regulate them, saying, "that is right, you have put the other fellows out of business, but we are not going to put the little fellows back where you destroyed them, but we are going to adopt you and say, 'You run the business of the country, but run it the way we tell you to run it.'"

THE SIXTH SENSE—NEW SCIENTIFIC DISCOVERY

It is almost a 1,000-to-1 bet that you don't know you have a sixth sense. But you have, nevertheless. The reason you never knew it is because it has only recently been discovered. It is known as the sense of equilibrium.

The sixth sense is located in the semi-circular canals of the inner ear, and whenever a person is in danger of falling, or losing his equilibrium, a warning message is communicated to the brain. For years physiologists have been puzzled to know the function of these canals, because it was proved definitely that they had nothing to do with the sense of hearing, or the proper working of the auricular organ. Thus they came to be considered as superfluous. They consist of three semi-circular tubes, almost at right angles to one another and full of a clear liquid.

Scientists have discovered that these canals enable a person to tell what position he is in, no matter whether he is blind or paralyzed. By some peculiar process not well understood, they warn us when we are about to fall and give us the consciousness of being in any position assumed.

Steeplejacks and other workers on high buildings who finally lose their nerve and are afraid to go very far above the ground, have lost part of their sense of equilibrium. Examinations by physicians in such instances have shown that their semi-circular glands were diseased. It was largely by this means that the existence of a sixth sense was discovered. [Chicago Tribune.]

POSTMASTERS PUT IN CLASSIFIED SERVICE

New York, Oct. 15.—President Taft on board the yacht Mayflower signed an executive order putting 35,000 fourth-class postmasters in the classified service.

The execution of this order will put every fourth-class postmaster in the United States under the civil service, 25,000 having previously been put in the classified list by the President.

Postmaster General Hitchcock brought the new order to New York to-day and boarded the Mayflower to witness the battleship review. While postmasters in the designated class will be taken care of under the order, unless proved unfit, vacancies in the future will be filled by the civil service commission upon reports of post-office inspectors. In the case of offices paying less than $500 a year.

For offices paying more than $500 a year, one of three applicants of the highest standing will be chosen.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

—Was the First to Die.

Petersburg, Ind., Oct. 17.—Mrs. Warner Carlisle, aged twenty-eight, living five miles north of here, died last night. She was the first of the four O'Brien sisters, who married four Carlisle brothers, to die, and the funeral will be one of the biggest ever held in the county. This is the only instance where four brothers married four sisters in the United States and the breaking up of the famous quartet has cast gloom over the entire county.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For President—Gov. Woodrow Wilson, of New Jersey.
For Vice President—Gov. Thos. R. Marshall, of Indiana.
For Congress, Fourth District—Hon. Ben Johnson, of Bardonia.

It is the business bodies and not the busybodies that are of real value to a community.

At last account, the Colonel was bent on getting back on the forum or bust an already fractured rib.

Nowadays some of the fellows who run for office have to walk back or take a jo-boat on Salt river.

The Bull Moose design gets the sixth place on the ballot, but it will not be necessary to go any further than the first column to vote just right.

Col. Roosevelt has been offered $100,000 a year to edit the New York Press in the event he is defeated for President. Let's help him get the job.

The Democratic House voted to place sugar on the free list and the Republicans killed the bill. This is why you get 16 pounds instead of 25 pounds of sugar for a dollar.

Ohio county still stands right up among the leading counties of the State in the matter of campaign contributions. The Democrats here have certainly done their part nobly and well.

Democrats should not forget the importance of getting out the vote. No Democrat in Ohio county should allow any only the most urgent cause keep him away from the polls on election day.

Over-confidence often begets apathy, which is the most dangerous element that can beset a political party just before an election. Let your chief effort be not only to vote yourself, but to get your apathetic neighbor to the polls also.

The would-be assassin Schrank seems to have had a method in his madness when he chose a State (Wisconsin) where the punishment for such crimes as his is only from one to fifteen years in the penitentiary. The rope is what would best suit his case.

Every allegation and indictment which has been uttered by members of either Republican faction against the other is but proof of what the Democrats have been contending for many years—that the Republican party has been and is now the hotbed of political corruption.

Owing to a slip in somebody's memory, President Taft failed to be reminded to send in his formal letter of acceptance of the Presidential nomination. But what does it matter? He will be so far behind at the post that it will not really make any difference whether he concluded to run or not.

The claim of Col. Roosevelt and his followers that there is nothing good left in the old Republican party, according to their opinion, is discounted by the fact that he was ready and willing to run on the platform as prepared at the first Chicago convention until he found that his nomination was impossible. Then it was he found that the whole Republican aggregation—party, principles and all—was rotten to the core. Knowing that it was bad, he should have rejected it from the start.

It is pleasant to note that two great political gladiators—Messrs. Bryan and Roosevelt—have agreed on at least one matter, in that hostilities shall not be suspended between the two on account of one being temporarily disabled by the bullet of a would-be assassin. As both have agreed, this deplorable affair in no wise affects the questions and principles at issue. It was a sane contention of Mr. Bryan in the initiative and it was a brave acquiescence on the part of Col. Roosevelt. Now let the battle proceed!

Eight dollars a day board at a hotel for each of their pet dogs was one of the expenses of Mrs. F. W. Vanderbilt, of New York, and the Dutchess of Manchester at Evian-les-Bains, on the Lake of Geneva. The facts have been corroborated by the Dutchess herself on her return with the Duke of Manchester from a journey in the Far East. It is such wanton extravagance as this, when thousands of helplessly poor people are famishing for bread, which excites hatred of the rich and widens the chasm which it seems must forever separate these two classes of God's creatures who should be nearer on an equality with each other.

"My thought is constantly with that gallant gentleman lying in the hospital at Chicago," said Woodrow Wilson in several of his speeches while touring the State of Delaware last week. From the moment that Gov. Wilson heard of the foul deed committed upon the person of Col. Roosevelt, he seemed deeply moved, and has never ceased to keep informed as to the stricken Rough Rider's condition. It is pleasant to know that Democracy has such a kindly and human-hearted candidate for the highest office within the gift of the people.

Since January 1, of the present year, a Democratic House of Representatives has passed a tariff bill which would have reduced the high cost of living $650,000,000 a year. President Taft vetoed every tariff measure presented to him which in the slightest degree provided relief for the many from extortion. He used his power to perpetuate prohibitive protection and the sway of the trusts. The way to remedy this matter is to vote the Democratic ticket straight. This means more this year than it ever did before.

Jack Johnson, the negro pugilist, was arrested in Chicago last week, at the instance of Mrs. F. Cameron-Falconnet, a white woman of Minneapolis, who alleges that the black man is using undue influence upon her daughter in trying to induce the girl to marry him. It will be remembered that Johnson's white wife recently committed suicide. The mother pleaded with Johnson amid streaming tears to cease his attentions to her daughter, but he defied her. Chicago may stand that sort of thing, but we have an idea what would happen to Johnson if this case happened in Kentucky.

After copying the editorial extracts in last week's Herald, in which we showed up the hypocrisy of the political editor of the Hartford Republican, wherein he claimed that he never was a Taft Republican and in which we proved by editorials from his own pen that he was, the Owensboro Inquirer says:

The Inquirer passes the issue up to its two Hartford contemporaries, but not without saying that it looks now like the Herald holds the winning hand.

The Inquirer was simply "taken in" by a little piece of demagoguery contained in the Hartford Bull Moose sheet, and does the proper thing by setting the matter right in its own columns.

The Fourth District Leader, a Taft paper published at Hardinsburg, says:

The Leader can state with authority that Wilson is a distinct disappointment to the Democratic leaders and party generally. There is no Wilson enthusiasm. It is only those who are seeking office that pretend to have any. Among Democrats, who are conversant with the situation, this astonishing state of affairs is freely commented upon.

Wonder where the Leader got all of its wonderful, far-reaching "authority" by which it assumes to read the minds of Democrats everywhere and to find therein the greatest disappointment at the candidacy of Woodrow Wilson? Editor Meador will no doubt find where all this enthusiasm was concealed on the eve of election day.

Gold to the value of $96,890,000 was produced in the United States last year, this record being surpassed only in 1909.

Tonic— Alterative

What is a "tonic"? A medicine that increases the strength or the tone of the whole system. What is an "alterative"? A medicine that alters or changes unhealthy action to healthy action. Name the best "tonic and alterative"? Ayer's Sarsaparilla, the only Sarsaparilla entirely free from alcohol. Ask your doctor about it.

Bilious attacks, sick-headaches, indigestion, constipation, dizziness—these are some of the results of an inactive liver. Ask your doctor if he endorses Ayer's Pills in these cases. The dose is small, one pill at bedtime.

ATTACK SHOULD NOT BE SHIELD

Used By Supporters of Col. Roosevelt,

SAYS BRYAN IN STATEMENT

Declares That Progressives
Should Not Hide Behind Tragedy.

THE SAME TO DECIDE ISSUES

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 18.—Declaring that the recent attack on Col. Roosevelt at Milwaukee should not be used by his supporters to protect their policies from political attacks, William J. Bryan read a prepared statement to his audience during his speech here to-night to bear out his assertion. His statement follows:

"We are embarrassed in the discussion of national issues by the fact that one of the Presidential candidates has been made the victim of a murderous assault.

"We deplore as deeply as Mr. Roosevelt's supporters the act of a madman, who has temporarily disabled him for campaign work. We denounce as bitterly as Mr. Roosevelt's supporters such a resort to violence, even by one who is bereft of his reason. We sympathize with Mr. Roosevelt in his affliction as sincerely as his supporters do, and we wish as earnestly as they for his speedy recovery. But neither he nor they will ask for a suspension of activity on the part of Mr. Roosevelt's opponents so long as his friends continue to present his side on national issues.

"The question before the country must be decided by the sane. A man cannot be an arbiter in such a crisis. I am surprised that the friends of Mr. Roosevelt should attempt to make use of this incident in his behalf. It cannot be charged to the Democratic party; it cannot be fairly charged to any party. The suggestion that the assailant was led to make the attack because of newspaper criticism is a far-fetched one, and even if it could be shown that an unbalanced mind was influenced by criticism, it is no more just to demand a suspension of the discussion of pending problems on this account than it would be to reject religion because some have gone insane on that subject.

"I have been a careful reader of the papers since last June and I am quite sure that the Taft papers have been no more bitter in their assaults upon Mr. Roosevelt than the Roosevelt papers have been in their assaults upon Mr. Taft. And neither side has attacked the other with more violence than both have attacked the Democrats in campaigns past.

"I can show you as bitter things said against me by both the friends of Mr. Taft and the friends of Mr. Roosevelt, as the friends of either have said against the other. The papers say many things they ought not to say, but I know of no party that is guiltless in this matter.

"A nation sits expectant by the ex-President's bedside, hoping that the wound is not a serious one. But Mr. Roosevelt's supporters must not use this attack to protect themselves and their position from just criticism. The brave soldiers on the battlefield do not use the wounded for breastworks. They stand out and give blow for blow.

"And so in this campaign, Mr. Roosevelt's supporters cannot just hide behind the attacks that may be made against the policies for which they stand."

"Lay On!" Says Teddy.
Chicago, Ill., Oct. 19.—Colonel Roosevelt is asking no quarter from his political enemies because of the attempt made upon his life Monday at Milwaukee.

The wounded chieftain of the third party to-night issued a statement from Mercy Hospital in answer to what Mr. Bryan made yesterday in his speech at Franklin, Ind. In it he says:

"I wish to express my cordial agreement with the manly and proper statement of Mr. Bryan at Franklin, Ind., when, in arguing for a continuance of the discussion of the issues at stake in the contest, he said:

"The issues of this campaign should not be determined by the act of an assassin. Neither Colonel Roosevelt nor his friends could ask that the discussion should be turned away from the principles involved. If he is elected President, it should be because of what he has done in the past and what he proposes to do hereafter."

"I wish to point out, however, that neither I nor my friends have asked that the discussion be turned away from the principles involved. On the contrary, we emphatically demand that the discussion be carried on, precisely as if I had not been shot. I shall be sorry if Mr. Wilson does not keep on the stump, and I feel that he owes it to himself and the American people to continue on the stump."

THE TOBACCO POOLERS
MAKE PEACEFUL PROTEST

Madisonville, Ky., Oct. 19.—Seventy-five tobacco growers, members of the Stemming District Association in Webster county, came to Madisonville in a body and called on several tobacco buyers here, requesting them not to buy any of the unpooled tobacco at the present time. A buyer was also visited at Manitou, four miles north of here, where the same request was made. The leader of the crowd stated in an interview that several buyers from this county had been over in Webster, looking over crops, and in a few cases had made purchases of this year's tobacco.

The association is making a strenuous campaign for members. The books will be kept open for poolers until the 20th of the present month for this purpose, and the men who came here said it was a peaceful mission, that they had neither guns nor whiskey and that an honest appeal was made to those who are engaged in the buying of tobacco to stay out of the field for the present.

The men spent the day in Madisonville in conference with association members here and left late in the afternoon for Webster county. It is understood the buyers made them no promises.

QUARANTINE ORDER BY STATE AGAINST HORSES

Frankfort, Ky., Oct. 18.—The State Live Stock Sanitary Board today ordered a quarantine of Robertson county to cover the shipping, driving or moving sheep out of the county until an efficient County Inspector is appointed who will cooperate with the State Live Stock Inspector representing the board. The board ordered a quarantine against all horses, mules and jack stock shipped here from Nebraska and Kansas, as it views with alarm the continued spread in Kansas and Nebraska of the disease somewhat similar to cerebro-spinal meningitis that is now devastating those States. Veterinarians are unable to handle the situation or even to say positively whether the disease is contagious, infectious or communicable in any way.

WOMAN WAS ATTACKED
BY A VICIOUS NEGRO

The Calhoun Star says:
An attempted assault was made on Mrs. Henry Higgs, at her home in Livermore, Wednesday evening, at 7 o'clock, by Ed Taylor, a young negro, living in that town.

Mrs. Higgs had just finished washing the supper dishes and was leaving the kitchen with a lamp in her hand, when Taylor came into the room from a back door and grabbed her. She dropped the lamp, which went out, and she struggled with the negro in darkness until help arrived. Her screams brought her children from another room who called for help, which frightened the man away before accomplishing his purpose. He escaped the officers by successfully hiding in a coalhouse until early Thursday morning he was arrested by Marshal V. P. Statefer, who brought the negro to Calhoun, after telephoning here for the sheriff to meet him, as lynching was feared. The prisoner is in the Calhoun jail.

HENRY WHITE ARRESTED ON A SERIOUS CHARGE

The Owensboro Messenger says:
Henry White, of Neafus, Grayson county, was arrested by Deputy United States Marshal C. T. Nichols on a warrant sworn out by W. A. Cuman, Jr., charging him with using the mails to defraud, and brought before Commissioner J. A. Dean, Jr., who held him to the November term of the United States grand jury.

In the complaint it is stated that in several different instances the defendant, White, used the mails in his attempt to defraud Sears, Roebuck & Co., of Chicago, by ordering goods from them and mailing them checks to pay for the goods, when he knew he did not have any money in the bank on which the checks were drawn. The total amount that he is said to have received on the seven orders is $40.32.

Patriotism and Love of Country

Can scarcely be expected of children reared by homes parents with no more serious thought than the present. "Just as the twig is bent, the tree's inclined," and as more recent writers have said, "The home is the backbone of our nation," it behooves all lovers of life, liberty and happiness, and particularly those directing the footsteps of the youth of our country to set a good example. To do this it is not necessary to build a palace and go in debt for life. Wood construction will just meet your requirements. With it you can plan a home of any size you may ultimately desire and then start with a few rooms and build on as your demands require. We have helped many people solve their building problems and would like to help you. Come in and let's talk it over or write for prices.

THE VOTE IN KENTUCKY SHOWS EVIDENT GAIN

For Taft, While Woodrow Wilson Continues Far in the Lead.

The Cincinnati Enquirer says:
Since the last review of the situation politically in Kentucky, Taft has, as indicated by the straw vote that is being taken for the Cincinnati Enquirer and by the expressions of voters in various sections of the State, particularly the colored voters, made gains that have considerably stimulated the Republican leaders.

The Taft gains, however, have not affected the standing of Woodrow Wilson. The Democratic standard bearer has himself gained the difference between 50-1-6 per cent. which he had when the previous review was written, and 50-56-82 per cent. of the total straw vote taken up to the time of the present writing.

Taft's gain has been Roosevelt's loss and it is equivalent to 15-24 per cent. of the total vote that has been taken. It appears to have come for the greater part through a shifting of the negro sentiment, and Senator William O'Connell Bradley, who continues actively upon the stump, is accorded by the old line Republicans the lion's share of credit for it.

While Roosevelt now has, as indicated by the straw vote, 20-15-82 of the Kentucky suffrage as against 17-52-82 for Taft, the adherents of the President are claiming that the election returns will show the reverse. They are right now figuring upon Taft's polling two votes for every one that is cast in the State for Roosevelt.

The Progressive leaders assert that the loss indicated by the straw vote is real. They claim to be making steadily converts to the third party cause and they pooh pooh the idea that the negro vote cannot get away from the habit of stamping his ballot under the log cabin device of the Republican party. They claim that the black man has naturally a high regard for Roosevelt and that they will without hesitancy stamp their ballots under the picture of "the strenuous one."

PRESIDENT TAFT ON THIRD TERM POLICIES

That the third term movement is not founded on any one principle or for that matter on any principle at all, but merely for the gratification of one man's ambition and vengeance; that it would go to pieces if its remarkable leader should die; that its crazy-quilt platform is made up of anything and everything to catch votes; that it is more socialistic than anything suggested in the countries of Europe, and that it is destined to defeat, are some of the charges that President Taft brings against Colonel Roosevelt and his so-called Progressive party.

That these charges are true, few will deny, but almost as strong an indictment can be found against the Republican party which has fostered the interests at the expense of the people, wrung taxes from them on the necessities of life and pursued a policy of making the rich richer and the poor poorer. It has sinned away its day of grace and just as sure as November comes, the unworthy servants will be scourged from the temple.

Mr. S. P. Aaron, an employee of the L. & N. railroad, doing grade work on the Hartford section, traded horses here Monday on Jockey street and took the horse onto the railroad right-of-way to graze Monday and when a train came along it frightened the horse so badly that it ran into a wire fence, falling over it and breaking its neck.

Dr. B. F. Tichenor, formerly of Pleasant Ridge, has purchased and moved into the David Moreland property on union street and has located here for the practice of his profession. Dr. Tichenor, who was twice elected as Senator from the Daviess-McLean Senatorial District, is a fine physician and we gladly welcome him back to his native county and especially into our midst.

The entertainment given at Dr. Bean's Opera House last Saturday night by the Mellenry Dramatic Club was well patronized and much enjoyed by the audience. A college comedy drama in three acts, entitled "Kingdom of Hearts Content," was presented in a most satisfactory manner. Several new and pleasing between-acts features were introduced, consisting of vaudeville specialties. The music was also good and altogether it was a first-class show.

Gunter-Hoehn.
At St. Joseph's church in Central City, Ky., yesterday morning at 8 o'clock, Miss Henrietta Louise Gunter was united in marriage to Mr. Andrew Urban Hoehn, Rev. Father Meyerling, of the above named city and church, officiating. The wedding was an unpretentious affair, only the immediate relatives being present, and the bride selected that place because she holds her church membership there. Soon after the ceremony the newly wedded couple left for Avondale, Ala., where they will reside in the future.

The bride is a native of Hartford and no more popular or well beloved girl ever lived here. For a number of years up until recently she was chief assistant to the postmaster, and some of the high officials of the Government frequently complimented her work. She was as popular with the patrons of the office as she was with Uncle Sam and her employers. Mr. Hoehn is an engineer in the employ of the Southern Railroad Co. at Birmingham, and is one of Birmingham's best citizens as well as a highly valued railroad man.

The whole community of Hartford and vicinity join in best wishes for Mr. and Mrs. Hoehn.

OIL COMPANY MAKES ANOTHER GREAT STRIKE

And the Prospect for Many Wells in This Vicinity Grows Brighter.

The West Kentucky Oil Company, Hartford, brought in a gusher in well No. 2 last Wednesday morning. It was first thought that this well would produce from 300 to 400 barrels per day, but while it will not reach that output, it is certainly a great strike and shows conclusively that this is an oil field worth while. When first struck, the rush of oil was so great that many men had to be pressed into service to throw up embankments and dig trenches to take care of the oil while the tanks were being gotten ready to receive it.

Well No. 2 is on the Joe Spall farm, better known as part of the Duke farm, six miles northeast of Hartford. This oil was struck at a depth of 1,780 feet. The oil which is of the same grade as well No. 1, shows 23 per cent gasoline. Well No. 3, located in the same community, is expected to soon be brought in. Well No. 4 will be begun in a few days. In fact it now looks like many wells will be started within the next few days.

Pipe has been ordered to put in pipe lines from the wells to the L. & N. railroad at Dukehurst, a mile distant, where the oil will be loaded into large tanks to be shipped to the numerous purchasers of the crude oil.

STATES JUST WHY HE IS FOR WILSON

And Will Support Governor at Polls.

DEAN OF THE YALE LAW SCHOOL

(Taft's Own University) Gives Reasons for Faith That Is In Him.

AS BETWEEN TAFT AND WILSON

(By Henry Wade Rogers.)
I shall vote for Woodrow Wilson for President for these reasons:

To punish the Republican party as the representative of the mercenary interests that have preyed upon the people for a generation, and to punish it for the sake of big business in partnership with crooked politics.

Because the policies of the Republican party tend to make the rich richer and the poor poorer. Those policies widen the gulf between the rich and poor. The crying need to-day confronting all civilized States is to narrow the too-wide gulf between those who are too rich and those who are too poor. The Republican party in recent years, and after accomplishing the abolition of slavery, has shown a singular indifference to the divine injunction to consider the poor.

Because Woodrow Wilson possesses the energy, the ability, the courage, the independence, the respect for the Constitution and laws which are so necessary if one is to fill the high office of President of the United States.

I believe that his personal qualities are such that he will be more successful in getting things done than Roosevelt or Taft. Roosevelt certainly was not successful in getting his measure through Congress. He was too mandatory and belligerent. He was too abrupt and irritating in his way of doing things.

Mr. Taft has been more successful than Roosevelt in dealing with Congress, yet in the most important of all matters before Congress, that of the tariff, he could not win Congress to revise the tariff downward according to his own and his party's promise.

There is no office in which personality counts for more than in the Presidency, and Woodrow Wilson has the right personality. I concede the charm of Mr. Taft's personality. He has all the charm McKinley had, and more. But a President needs to have, in addition to his charm, great political and personal tact and a resolute will and determined purpose.

Mr. Taft is a fine type of gentleman, and I believe him the most misrepresented and least understood man in our public life. But it is not within his power to accomplish the reforms which are so necessary to the welfare of the American people at this time.

Mrs. T. A. Town, 107 6th St., Watertown, S. D., writes: "My four children are subject to hard colds and I always use Foley's Kidney and Tar Compound with splendid results. Some time ago I had a severe attack of a grippé and the doctor prescribed Foley's Kidney and Tar Compound and it soon cured me."

Between the two on account of being temporarily disabled by a bullet of a would-be assassin, both have agreed, this deplorable affair in no wise affects the relations and principles at issue. It was a sane contention of Mr. Roosevelt. Now let the battle be decided!

Eight dollars a day board a hotel for each of their pet dogs are one of the expenses of Mrs. F. s. The Vanderbilt, of New York, and able to Dutches of Manchester at Evi wheth- Les-Bains, on the Lake of Gene colored. The facts have been corroborated female by the Dutches herself on her. of the turn with the Duke of Manches from a journey in the Far East. is such wanton extravagance brought this, when thousands of help-

LUKE McLUKE SAYS.

And many a girl who is so lazy to wash the dishes imagines that she has a soulful temperament.

A girl will spend three hours dolling up so as to exaggerate the charms with which Nature endowed her and making them as transparent as modesty will permit. Then she will put a chip on her shoulder and become highly indignant when a rude man dares take a long look at her.

When He comes to her home for dinner she nibbles daintily at a cracker, and tells him that she never has any appetite. But when He has gone and she gets her corset off she can clean up a whole pot of pork and cabbage.

The trouble with the sex nowadays is that the girls are womanish and the women are mannish.

Once upon a time a man invented a common-sense hat for women. It contained no dingbats, dornicks, curlyques nor colly-wobbles, was guaranteed not to scare horses, cost only 50 cents, and required no swords to hold it in place. He starved to death.

I'll admit that some of the brides are tacky looking. But when I figure up the number of men in the world who are not worth marrying, I haven't the heart to knock the poor women.

When I see a fat girl in a tight hobble waddling along the street, I always wonder how on earth they are going to get some skirts any fuller than they are.

Both in a Hurry.
"Now, Judge," said Bilad, "I wish you would expedite this case as much as you can. I am in a great hurry."

"Sure," said the justice. "Lemme see—I gotta do some hynin' this afternoon; and thar's a town-meetin' to-morrow that I can't late'll last all day; an' Thursday I gotta go over to Blabbs' Corners to an auction sale—I guess we'll git raound to you about Tuesday of next week unless ye'll save time by pleadin' guilty."

"Oh well—all right," retorted Bilad. "I'm guilty. What's the penalty?"

"Waal, raound here we're makin' an example of speeders, mister," said the Judge. "Ten days in the county jail."

A Log on the Track
Of the fast express means serious trouble ahead if not removed, so does loss of appetite. It means lack of vitality, loss of strength and nerve weakness. If appetite fails, take Electric Bitters, quickly to overcome the cause by toning up the stomach and curing the indigestion. Michael Hesselmer of London, Neb., had been sick over three years, but six bottles of Electric Bitters put him right on his feet again. They have helped thousands. FOLEY KIDNEY PILLS FOR BACKACHE KIDNEYS AND BLADDER

MAN WHO SHOT COLONEL A CHRONIC NE'ER-DO-WELL

Was a Cheap Lodging House Roamer Who Was Always Without Job.

New York, Oct. 18.—John Schrank, Col. Roosevelt's would-be-assassin, up to a month ago was a lodger at the White Hotel, a 3-story lodging-house at 156 Canal street, just off the Bowery. He had been a guest there for nine months, occupying a room that cost him $2 a week. Gustave A. Joat, the owner of the hotel, said to-day that he had known Schrank for a long time, although never intimately.

"The man's father," said Joat, "was an old-time saloon keeper on Elizabeth street. Schrank used to come often to my place for lunch or a casual glass of beer. He was a quiet, unassuming fellow, and I often sat down with him for a few minutes' chat, although at the time I did not even know his name."

"It was just nine months ago when he came to me and asked for a room. I gave him one at $2 a week and he was registered under the name Slannang. He told me at the time he was in the insurance business. A few days later he remarked to me that his name as inscribed on the register was a mistake and should be 'Schrank.' He did not appear to be prosperous; in fact, about two months ago he asked me to help him get a job somewhere as bartender or waiter."

"Finally, about the last of September, Schrank quit the hotel, leaving no forwarding address. He said that he was going out of town to visit relatives. A few days later he sent me a souvenir post-card from a Southern town, I think in South Carolina. I notice by the papers this morning that he had gone South in pursuit of Col. Roosevelt."

"Schrank never had any visitors at the hotel. He was quiet in his manner and in his talk. There was no mystery about him—apparently he was just like many other men whom you meet in New York hotels and lodging-houses. He never talked politics with me and never gave any indications of possessing violent opinions. He is the last man I would have picked as a would-be assassin."

"The man left no papers or documents in the room he occupied. There was a bundle of old clothes on a cupboard shelf which I told the maid to throw out."

Mrs. Paul Wehling, 316 Smith St., Peoria, Ill., had kidney and bladder trouble, with terrible backache and pain across the hips. Just imagine her condition. She further says: "I was also very nervous, had headaches and dizzy spells, and was fast getting worse when I took Foley Kidney Pills, and now all my troubles are cured. Foley Kidney Pills have done so much for me I shall always recommend them." Foley Kidney Pills are rich in curative qualities and contain no habit forming drugs. Try them. Nix on the Slang.

Take it from us, kid, there's no nourishment in slinging this slang stuff. That's a cinch. Slang is all to the bad. It don't get you anywhere. Forget that Norwegian college professor who says that American slang is the swell talk. He's trying to put one over on us. Either somebody's been handling him a lemon or else he's trying to con us. Listen! You can't make a hit with the tony guys unless you get a little style into your lingo. The trouble with slang is that it puts your vocabulary on the blink in a jiffy. And then, when you want to have a touch of high life and throw the lugs, you're in bad. See? Do you get us? Have some class about you and cut it.—Life.

You carry Fire Insurance—and why? Because of the danger of sudden loss. Because it protects you against this uncertainty, although your buildings may never burn down. Do you protect them against decay—against the weather—against the dead certainty of depreciation resulting from allowing them to go unpainted. Why not?

Paint Insurance is worth even more to you than Fire Insurance—yet is often sadly neglected—and you are the loser.

MASTIC PAINT for 40 years has proven the "real protector" of buildings. For quality—service—economy—and beauty of finish it has no equal. Ask for color card.

LITTLE BROWN HANDS.

They drive home the cowa from the pasture, Up through the long, shady lane, Where the quail whistles loud in the wheat fields

That are yellow with ripening grain.

They find in the thick waving grasses

Where the scarlet-tipped straw-berry grows;

They gather the earliest snowdrops

And the first crimson buds of the rose.

They toss the new hay in the meadow;

They gather the elder-bloom white;

They find where the dusky grapes purple

In the soft-tinted October light.

They know where the apples hang ripest,

And are sweeter than Italy's wine;

They know where the fruit hangs the thickest

On the long, thorny blackberry vines.

They gather the delicate seaweeds,

And build tiny castles of sand;

They pick up the beautiful sea shells—

Fairy barka that have drifted to land.

They wave from the tall, rocking tree tops,

Where the oriole's hammock-nest awings;

And at night time are folded in slumber

By a song that a fond mother sings.

Those who toll bravely are atrongest;

The humble and poor become great;

And so from these brown-handed children

Shall grow mighty rulers of state.

The pen of the author and statesmen—

The noble and wise of the land—

The sword, and the chisel, and palette

Shall be held in the little brown hand.

IN HARTFORD

The Evidence Is Supplied by Local Testimony.

If the reader wants a stronger proof than the following statement and experience of a resident of Hartford, what can it be?

Henry Nall, Hartford, Ky., says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills for about a year and have found them to be an excellent remedy for kidney complaint. I had pains in my back and in my sides. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills advertised, I procured a box at the Ohio County Drug Co. They did me a world of good and I can therefore recommend them to anyone suffering from kidney trouble."

The above statement must carry conviction to the mind of every reader. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Nall had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 50c at all stores. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

REPRESENTATIVES OF THE POOLING DISTRICTS

Meet and Adopt Resolutions Cutting Out the 1913 Burley Crop.

Central City, Oct. 19.—Delegates from the following tobacco pooling districts met here to-day and had reports as to prices as fixed by the different pools. Green River District, A. S. of E.; Bowling Green District, A. S. of E.; Muhlenberg County District, A. S. of E.; Butler County, Mercer and Logan county A. S. of E., and transacted quite a lot of business.

The Home Warehouse Company was also well represented and all delegates manifested a desire to formulate and carry out plans for complete co-operation as is indicated by the following resolution: We, the dark tobacco growers of Western Kentucky in convention assembled in Central City, do hereby declare that we favor the co-operation of all tobacco growers in the following named districts: Green River A. S. of E.; Bowling Green District, A. S. of E.; Muhlenberg county A. S. of E.; Butler county A. S. of E.; Logan county pool A. S. of E. and Mercer, and further agree to co-operate with the Burley Growers in cutting out the 1913 crop, and if they decide to do so, we will use our best endeavors to see that no burley is grown in any of the dark districts here represented, together with the Home Warehouse company, of Daviess county.

The following were named as a committee to report on prices from the several districts: Home Warehouse, L. N. Robertson; Green River, R. C. Eaton; Bowling Green, I. N. Curley; Logan county, Dr. G. H. Ham; Butler county, J. P. Hudson; Mercer county, J. C. Clark. The committee will report on prices from the several districts.

SELLING AXLE GREASE TO CHINESE FOR OPIUM

San Francisco, Oct. 19.—William H. Hoburg, Assistant Weigher of Customs, of the port of San Francisco, who was arrested last week by customs officials when caught, the officers say, in the act of receiving $1,000 from a Chinese in payment for 500 opium tins filled with axle grease, confessed here that he had been regularly engaged in filling five-ounce opium tins with axle grease and selling them to Chinese as contraband opium.

He said he also had collected bribes from the Chinese through a confederate who threatened to arrest them, and who later collected the cans of grease after the bribes had been paid.

Hoburg was trapped when the Government officials received word that he was to meet a Chinese at a downtown corner. In hiding near the rendezvous were Special Agent W. H. Tidwell and several other customs officials.

They saw Hoburg meet the Chinese and exchange a package for a sack, which they later found to contain $1,000 in gold. He was arrested.

DEATH.

Little Hugh Austin Shown was born October 5, 1911, died October 10, 1912. His illness lasted only seven days, during which time he bore his desperate sufferings with the utmost patience and clung to life many hours after all earthly hope of his recovery had been abandoned. He had just reached the age where his every little action was especially interesting to his father and mother.

Just before his departure he aroused from his sufferings and lifted his little hand and pointed with his finger toward heaven. He did this four times in succession. The fourth time he lifted his hand high above his head. Then it fell and his spirit took its flight, while a smile lingered on his little face. He lay in his coffin with his finger pointed toward heaven.

The funeral service was unusually tender and touching. The Holy Spirit, we think, led the services. We feel that the child was used as a tender, touching messenger to call attention to the heavenly world. We believe those who looked in the face of the little child in his coffin, with his finger pointing toward heaven, were deeply impressed with the reality of heaven. May father, mother and little sister see Hugh Austin again in that sun-bright clime.

A PLAN INVENTED TO SEW HAIR ON BALD HEADS

Dr. Szekely Ferencz has devised a method for implanting hair into the scalps of baldheaded persons. In carrying out the process the scalp is first carefully cleaned and anaesthetized with a solution of novocaine. The operator uses a number of small hooks, made of gold wire, and in the eyelet of each hook a doubly folded hair is inserted. The hook is then pushed into the scalp with aid of a Pravatz needle, of which from 300 to 400 are in readiness, all prepared with hook and hair, and, of course, thoroughly sterilized before use. When the needle has been pushed into the scalp, it is turned at a right angle and then pulled out, leaving the hair under the skin fastened by the outstanding end of the hook. As at one sitting not more than from 300 to 400 hairs can be implanted, a full head of hair requires from 5 to 10 sittings, assuming that from 10,000 to 20,000 hairs will cover a head. Dr. Szekely also sometimes is able to apply the treatment every alternate day. If there is inflammation around a hair, this is pulled out and the inflammation promptly ceases.—[Chicago Tribune.]

HORRIBLE CONDITIONS OF THIRD-CLASS PEOPLE

Living in West Virginia—They Have No Regard for Moral Obligations.

Richmond, Va., Oct. 21.—A class of people, little better than white savages, living in the ragged mountains of West Virginia, have been studied and reported on by a committee from the University of Virginia whose conclusions were made public here.

The committee divides the people of the ragged mountains into three classes: the first the comparatively well to do, who live in fairly good houses, own land, and run an occasional small store; the second the poor, who live in more isolated sections in cabins, and the third, a class positively proclaimed as degenerate, living without regard to morals in miserable huts, each family occupying only one room and sharing that with pigs and chickens.

Describing the third class the committee's report says: "The economic condition of this class is at the lowest point; the lack of fertility of the soil prevents them raising crops of any value and they are by nature so shiftless and lazy that they do little to earn enough to live upon."

"Their homes are of the wretchedest type. These people have no idea of personal ethics and make no pretense of obeying even the most elementary moral precepts."

One case is reported of a man who lived in one room with two wives and sixteen children, one of the women being his legal wife. The 19 in the family were reported as living contentedly.

Such general laxness in family life as were found in this community, the committee declares, are "seldom if ever observed among even the most savage races, whose notions of morality have not evolved far beyond the earliest stages."

SCOTCH SUFFRAGETTES MARCH THROUGH ENGLAND

Edinburgh, Scotland, Oct. 19.—A small army of Suffragettes set out to-day from this city to march to London, where they intend to present a petition to Premier Asquith. They are led by Mrs. De Fontblanc on horseback. It is believed the march will take about six weeks at ten miles a day.

At every stopping place meetings will be held and vigorous suffrage propaganda will mark the course of the army. A special uniform is worn by the marchers.

Expenses reckoned at $7 a week each are provided for those who cannot spare the money.

Requests have been sent to local branches along the way for hospitality, but where this cannot be given hotels and inns will be patronized, as it is too late in the year for camping out.

"Rats" and "Spots."

BEAVER DAM.

Oct. 21.—Born to the wife of Mr. Forclon McKinney, last week, a little boy who only lived two hours. His remains were interred in the McKinney plot in the Rochester cemetery. Mrs. McKinney is improving.

Mr. Ben Stevens and wife, of El Paso, Texas, who had been visiting his father, Dr. Dick Stevens, and other friends of our town and vicinity, returned to their home last week.

Miss Marie Austin gave the senior class of the West Kentucky Seminary an entertainment at the home of Mr. G. P. Austin on last Friday evening, which was a very interesting affair. Innocent games were indulged in and refreshments served. Miss Marie was the former teacher of that class. Those present were: Messrs. Presley Gray, Frank Barnes, Eldred Leach and Misses Hazel Hocker, Annie Barnes, Ella McKinney, Marguerite Rhoads, Nell Plummer, Myrl Miller and Edith Porter.

The most brilliant birthday celebration that has occurred in our town of late was celebrated at the home of Mr. Wm. Flener last Sunday, it being Mr. Flener's 60th birthday, and the 32d anniversary of marriage to his present wife, the same day being the 16th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Cook and 14th birthday of their daughter, Merv Tyler, and the 4th birthday of Elizabeth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Hudson. As they were living near each other, it was agreed that they combine together and celebrate the various birth anniversaries at the home of Mr. Flener. Sunday morning Mr. Flener said to his good wife "We will go to church to-day." During their absence at church all arrangements were made for a grand feast without the knowledge of the old people. When they returned from church to their surprise the yard and house were full of people and a sumptuous table in the dining room awaited them. All their children were present namely: Dr. Oscar Flener, of Russellville; Mr. and Mrs. Clelland Flener, Loganport; Mr. and Mrs. R. W. King and son John W., Hartford. Others present were: Mrs. Jemima Martin, Rev. A. B. Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Flener, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Hudson, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Brunton, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Flener and daughter Myra, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Cook, daughter Mary Taylor and son Emmitt, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Flener, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Flener and children Meka, Luella and Emma, Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Hudson and children Elizabeth and Barnett, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Martin and baby, Misses Harriet and Goring Flener, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Martin, daughter Morine and son Wade. After partaking of the sumptuous dinner and spending the evening in reminiscences of other days, they parted happy over the much enjoyed occasion in that noble Christian home.

Can't Get Along Without It. Jasonville, Ind., Oct. 19, 1912. Friend Matthews:—Enclosed herewith find check to cover my subscription to the Hartford Herald for another year. The Herald is certainly a welcome visitor to my home each week, telling of the local happenings of my old home—just can't get along without it. Fraternally yours, S. D. DEMPSEY.

What frightens a girl out of her wits about a man is for him to be nobody to fear.
